Plaintiffs Philip G. Neri, Paul Colon, and Douglas Cook (collectively referred to as “Plaintiffs”), individuals confined by the State of New Jersey, seek to bring this civil action in forma pauperis, without prepayment of fees or security, asserting claims pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”), which amends 28 U.S.C. § 1915, establishes certain financial requirements for prisoners who are attempting to bring a civil action in forma pauperis.

Under the Act, a prisoner bringing a civil action in forma pauperis must submit an affidavit, including a statement of all assets, which states that the prisoner is unable to pay the fee. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). The prisoner also must submit a certified copy of his inmate trust fund account statement for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of his complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). The prisoner must obtain this statement from the appropriate official of each prison at which he was or is confined. Id. When multiple plaintiffs seek to file a Complaint jointly and to proceed in forma pauperis, each plaintiff is required to submit his or her own application for in forma pauperis status. See Hagan v. Rogers, 570 F.3d 146 (3d Cir. 2009) (each of the litigants proceeding as joint plaintiffs must obtain in forma pauperis status in the event these litigants wish to prosecute their action in forma pauperis); In re Bailey, 388 F. App'x 124 (3d Cir. 2010) (same); see also Hairston v. Gronolsky, 348 F. App'x. 716 (3d Cir. 2009) (regardless of the litigant's willingness or unwillingness to prepay the filing fee, each litigant's "legal obligation to pay the filing fee [or obtain IFP status is automatically] incurred by the initiation of the action itself").

The entire fee to be paid in advance of filing a civil complaint is $400. That fee includes a filing fee of $350 plus an administrative fee of $50, for a total of $400. A prisoner who is granted in forma pauperis status will, instead, be assessed a filing fee of $350 and will not be responsible for the $50 administrative fee. If in forma pauperis status is denied, the prisoner must pay the full $400, including the $350 filing fee and the $50 administrative fee, before the complaint will be filed.

If the prisoner is granted in forma pauperis status, the prisoner must pay the full amount of the $350 filing fee as follows. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). In each month that the amount in the prisoner's account exceeds $10.00, until the $350.00 filing fee is paid, the agency having custody of the prisoner shall assess, deduct from the prisoner's account, and forward to the Clerk of the Court, payment equal to 20% of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). In a case with multiple prisoners proceeding in forma pauperis, each prisoner will be assessed the full $350 filing fee. See Hagan, 570 F.3d at 155.

Plaintiffs may not have known when they submitted their complaint that they must pay the filing fee, and that even if the full filing fee, or any part of it, has been paid, the Court must dismiss the case if it finds that the action is: (1) frivolous or malicious; (2) fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or (3) seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). If the Court dismisses the case for any of these reasons, the Act does not permit the prisoner to get his filing fee back.

In this action, Plaintiffs failed to submit completed in forma pauperis applications as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Although the submitted application lists all three Plaintiffs, the application was only signed by Neri, and only contained an account statement for Neri, thus cannot be considered as a completed application for Colon and Cook. Furthermore, the Neri account statement dates only from August 22, 2014 through December 15, 2014, even though the filing date of the Complaint was April 27, 2015, and the Complaint was dated April 16, 2015. This does not satisfy the statutory requirement of a six month statement immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint.

IT IS therefore on this 29th day of April, 2015;

ORDERED that Plaintiffs' requests to proceed in forma pauperis are hereby DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE; it is further

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall ADMINISTRATIVELY TERMINATE this case, without filing the complaint or assessing a filing fee; Plaintiffs are informed that administrative termination is not a "dismissal" for purposes of the statute of limitations, and that if the case is reopened, it is not subject to the statute of limitations time bar if it was originally filed timely, see Jenkins v. Superintendent of Laurel Highlands, 705 F.3d 80, 84 n.2 (3d Cir. 2013) (describing prisoner mailbox rule generally); Dasilva v. Sheriff's Dep't, 413 F. App'x 498, 502 (3rd Cir. 2011) ("[The] statute of limitations is met when a complaint is submitted to the clerk before the statute runs ...."); it is further

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall send each Plaintiff the form entitled Affidavit of Poverty and Account Certification (Civil Rights)(DNJ ProSe 007 A(Rev. 5/13)) to be used by Plaintiffs in any future application to proceed in forma pauperis; it is further

ORDERED that if Plaintiffs wish to reopen this case, they shall so notify the Court, in writing addressed to the Clerk of the Court, Clarkson S. Fisher Building & U.S. Courthouse, 402 East State Street, Room 2020, Trenton, New Jersey 08608, within 30 days of the date of entry of this Order; Plaintiffs' writing shall include either (1) a complete, signed in forma pauperis application for each Plaintiff, including the certified six-month prison account statement for each Plaintiff, or (2) the $400 fee including the $350 filing fee plus the $50 administrative fee; it is further

ORDERED that upon receipt of a writing from Plaintiffs stating that they wish to reopen this case, and either the completed in forma pauperis applications or payment of the filing and administrative fees within the time allotted by this Court, the Clerk of the Court will be directed to reopen this case; and it is finally

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall serve a copy of this Order upon Plaintiffs by regular U.S. mail.
